

House Resolution No. 2370

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements thus far as students; and

Whereas, Wayne Boykin at Harrisburg High School has attained considerable distinction as a participant in the Harrisburg R-VIII School District's Learn and Serve program; and

Whereas, senior Wayne Boykin recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he was chosen for a Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Inspire by Example award in light of the service-learning projects that he has undertaken; and

Whereas, Wayne Boykin will receive his Inspire by Example service-learning award during a special ceremony that will take place at the state capital on April 25, 2007; and

Whereas, Wayne Boykin has engaged in more than 1,600 hours of community service work and has served as the State Youth Chairman for March of Dimes since 2005; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Wayne Boykin is the senior representative to Student Council, a manager for boys and girls varsity basketball teams, and treasurer and vice president of the Future Business Leaders of America; is the recipient of a Presidential Freedom Scholarship and a Presidential Volunteer Service Gold Award; and is a member of the National Society of High School Scholars; and

Whereas, Wayne Boykin is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved son of Deloris Boykin, who supports and encouraged his desire to study marketing and management at Columbia College after graduation from high school:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Wayne Boykin for an Inspire by Example service-learning award from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capital on April 25, 2007; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Wayne Boykin of Columbia, Missouri.
